If you have correctly carried out the above 3 steps you will have an excuse against liability for a civil penalty if the above named person is found working for you illegally. Home Office online right to work checking service

For an online right to work check (available in respect of those with a biometric residence permit, a biometric residence card or have status issued under the EU settlement scheme). There are three basic steps to conducting an online right to work check:

1. use the Home Office online right to work checking service (the 'View a job applicant's right to work details' page on gov.uk) in respect of an individual and only employ the person, or continue to employ an existing employee, if the online check confirms they are entitled to do the work in question;
2. satisfy yourself that any photograph on the online right to work check is of the individual presenting themselves for work; and
3. retain a clear copy of the response provided by the online right to work check (storing that response securely, electronically or in hardcopy) for the duration of employment and for two years afterwards.
